

Michelle is a well known Yukon runner. She has paddled many Yukon Rivers over the years and has been from Whitehorse to Carmacks on the Yukon. Michelle will be calling on her past experience and recent Triathlon training to pull hard on her end of the canoe.

Team Name: Granny and the Greenhorn

Members: Yvonne Harris, Whitehorse, YT Lynn Meehan, Whitehorse, YT

Sponsors:

Race Goal: To have fun and do the best we can.

Yvonne race in the '97 and '98 Dyea to Dawson Race to research a book for teenagers to be released in 1999 entitled 'Klondike Chase.' She is also a Kayaker, rafting guide and cross country skier. Lynn has no canoe racing experience but has travelled the McKenzie, Big Salmon, Pelly and Nahanni, among others. She has lots of backpacking, cycling and cross-country skiing experience.

Team Name: Skagway Snews

Members: Jeff Brady, Skagway, AK Dorothy Brady, Skagway, AK

Sponsors:

Race Goal: To continue the Dyea to Dawson tradition.

Dorothy and Jeff have never done the Yukon River together. They plan to finish in 5-6 days. Jeff grew up in N. Carolina, moving to Skagway in the '70's. He now publishes the Skagway News and co-founded the Dyea to Dawson Centennial Race to the Klondike. He has paddled many Yukon rivers. Dorothy is the descendant of a Gold Rush gambler from a six generation Skagway family. She has travelled the Chilkoot pass a dozen times and paddled the Yukon River three times but never with Jeff. A former Gustavus homestead and Glacier bay fisher, Dorothy is now a certified Yukon explorer.

Race Goal: To combine canoeing, ultra-endurance, self-sufficiency and the Yukon wilderness all in one event is a fantasy undertaking for me. Should be able to finish in 4 days.

David is a life long canoeist recently canoeing the Salmon River and the Owyhee River in Idaho, both class 3 in open canoes. He has competed in endurance events for 20 years including more than 50 marathons and more than 50 ultra-marathons, Eco-Challenge and Ironman races. David has mountain biked the Canol Rd. in Canada's North West Territories and climbed Mt. McKinley, Rainier and the Grand Teton.
